

I do not want the Do-Not-Call law weakened by any means. In my estimation the bankers do not need to call on people who have not asked for their services.

Beverly R. Brown